Cognizyme

Natural Choice Products Cognizyme, formerly called Alco-Zyme®, is specially formulated with a range of enzymes chosen for their ability to free the body from symptoms caused by a lack of oxygen. Containing powerful Pro-Oxidant™ nutrients and antioxidants to increase oxygen at the cellular level, Cognizyme may be beneficial in enhancing mental clarity and alertness. This powerful product also includes enzymes for the assimilation of sugars.

How does this work?

Enzymes are catalysts that speed up the process of absorption and utilization by breaking nutritional elements into their smaller counterparts, making them easier to eliminate. Because many ailments are caused by a surplus of sugar in the bloodstream, this may be helpful in reducing these sugar-related symptoms. Vitamins B1, B6 and B12 have been added along with Niacin, Ginseng and OptiZinc to further enhance Cognizyme's energizing and nourishing capacities.

May also be helpful for:

- Drowsiness
- Carpal Tunnel Syndrome
- Arthritis
- Candida
- Diabetes
- Hypoglycemia
- Motion Sickness
- Headaches
- Gout

THANK YOU FOR BEING PATIENT!

Thanks to people like you, Natural Choice Products is always growing. From word-of-mouth to professional seminars, our product line could not have come this far without you.

Looking at people's needs, we have added new products. Some people take a lot of enzymes throughout the day while addressing specific problem conditions. For them our president, Timothy O'Brien, formulated Vitalase. This product makes it possible to get one of each of the main enzymes (protease, amylase, cellulase & lipase) in addition to other enzymes, anthocyanins (wonderful, powerful antioxidants that come from plant pigments) and coral calcium - in one pill! His personal experience and the in-depth feedback from others give strong indication that it was a product well worth developing.

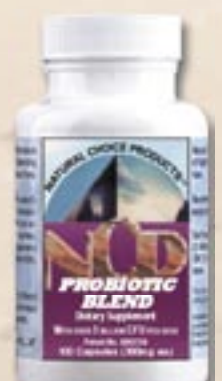

In addition to adding new products we have made other changes, such as the new containers for products like Nutritional Essentials. We've even sharpened up our logo a little. During this revision process, we've been printing labels in-house, so thank you for being patient with us. We'll be back to our great looking, professional labels in no time!

MULTIPLE DIGESTIVE ENZYMES & PROBIOTIC BLEND

Multiple Digestive Enzymes provides highly concentrated, biologically cultured enzymes to replace the naturally occurring enzymes lost during cooking, processing and other culinary preparations. This unique formula combines high potency enzymes to meet and maintain optimum predigestive enzyme levels that will assist your body in assimilating and utilizing food nutrients.

Probiotic Blend is a combination of highly stabilized species of Lactobacilli bacterium that is specifically designed to assist the body in maintaining vibrant health. It helps to preserve a stable intestinal biomass and offsets destructive daily stress factors. Specially cultured for optimum performance as a dietary supplement, Probiotic Blend aids in balancing and restoring healthy habitations of intestinal flora.

IT'S WORTH REPEATING Product Testimonials

Fight! Fight! Fight!

HEAR HOW ONE WOMAN GAINED BACK HER HEALTHY, ACTIVE SELF AFTER SOME TOLD HER SHE DIDN'T HAVE A CHOICE.

I was diagnosed with breast cancer and a tumor on my hip a couple of years ago. Though my surgeon wanted to schedule a double mastectomy and follow with radiation and chemotherapy, I asked for 30 days to try nutritional therapy.

I was willing to do whatever it took not to have to take chemotherapy. I had to trust my body to heal itself better without chemical drugs that would harm my immune system. Though the surgeon told me that the treatment would damage my immune system, he didn't feel that I had a choice. I felt that I did have a choice. I wanted to give the products a chance to help my body heal itself.

Because I know someone who had just had success with his Prostate Cancer while taking Natural Choice Products, I called and explained my situation. I was immediately faxed technical information on the Probiotic Blend and Enzymes so my husband and I could make an informed choice. I also read everything I could about cancer, to know my enemy. One thing that kept recurring was the benefit of enzymes, friendly bacteria, good nutrients, colon cleanses, exercise and having a positive attitude. I did them all.

Though my tumor didn't shrink right away and my surgeon became unhappy with the situation, I felt better and continued on. Those 6 months have now turned into almost 3 years, and I can honestly say that I haven't felt this good since I was a child.

If I had to give advice to those who are reading this, it would be not to wait until you have a health crisis to take care of your health. It is much easier to prevent illness and disease than to cure it once it strikes. That is where the products from Natural Choice come in. I know that they have helped me to regain my health and I sincerely believe that they can help you to enjoy better health - or any health - in my experience.
